

Mrs. Criminger's Elementary Literature Syllabus

Course Materials: 1. All classes will listen to a read aloud of Pictures of Hollis Woods by Patricia Reilly Giff in class. Ideally they will bring their own copy to class to follow along. 2. Independent reading at your level and pace. Choose your own goals from one of this year's book lists. When books are completed record them on Bibilionasium.com in our online classroom or on Reading Log provided in class. See email from Mrs. Criminger for instructions or check with your child for username and password they will be given in class.

Week 1 Our read aloud Pictures of Hollis Woods will be introduced. Students come to class with written personal reading goals for the session. First book should be ordered by now or asap.

Week 2 Work on your personal reading goals. In class focused on reading and writing activities related to Pictures of Hollis Woods--bring your copy.

Week 3 Work on your personal reading goals. In class focused on reading and writing activities related to Pictures of Hollis Woods--bring your copy.

Week 4 Work on your personal reading goals. In class focused on reading and writing activities related to Pictures of Hollis Woods--bring your copy.

Week 5 Work on your personal reading goals. In class focused on reading and writing activities related to Pictures of Hollis Woods--bring your copy .

Week 6 Students projects and assignments due. Continue to work on your personal goals. In class focused on reading and writing activities.

Week 7 Student projects and assignment presentations.

Week 8 Game day